Dear Annette,

I am writing this letter to confirm that the Pacific Union College Library is withdrawing its membership from the North Bay Cooperative Library System effective immediately. We regret very much that this has to happen. The decision is driven by budgetary considerations and we hope that our membership will be reinstated when times are better.

I would like to express heart-felt appreciation for your welcome and cooperation during the last few years. Please convey our gratitude for the services and professional associations we have enjoyed with members of the NBCLS family as well as our regret for withdrawing.

With regards,

Adu Worku
Director of Library Services
