

STANDING RULES OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COUNCIL, NSCLS

(based on MVLS standing rules – lots of changes need to be made to NSCLS bylaws to adjust for NLS management)

Section 1. Standing Rules Definition

The Standing Rules supplement the By-Laws to clarify how North State Cooperative Library System (NSCLS) should be managed and operated as a member of North Net Library System (NLS).

Article XI Section 2 of the By-Laws (this needs to be included in the bylaws) empowers the Officers to change these Standing Rules without a vote of the Council of Librarians.

Section 2. Principle Office

The principal office for the transaction of business of the System is located at 55 E Street, City of Santa Rosa, County of Sonoma, State of California 95404-4728.

Section 3. Committees and Communities of Practice

NSLCS will participate in and support Committees and Communities of Practice as created by The Administrative Council of NorthNet Library System. The NSCLS Chairman and Vice-Chairman shall appoint members to NLS Committees and Communities of Practice as created under NLS Standing Rules. These may include Information Services Community, Resource Sharing and Technology Community, Youth Services Community and other Communities as created in the Standing Rules of the NorthNet Library Administrative Council.

Appointees shall serve under the guidelines created by the NorthNet Library system.
