To: NBCLS Board of Directors
Date: August 5, 2019
From: Suzanne Olawski, NBCLS Co-Chair
Subject: Approval of $3,000 for legal fees related to (1) retiree health benefits obligation, and (2) recourse for communicating with nonactive NBCLS members and their obligation with retiree CalPERS payments

At the Annual Meeting of the NBCLS Board of Directors, June 7, 2019, the Board approved up to $2,000 to contract with Best, Best and Krieger attorney, Isabel Safie, for legal research and reporting on NBCLS's obligation for on-going payment on the one retiree's health benefits and recourse for communications with nonactive and former NBCLS member libraries.

Upon receiving a Scope of Service and fee estimate from Ms. Safie of approximately $5,000 for work on these two questions, NBCLS leadership is recommending approval of an additional $3,000 to cover the estimated "not to exceed" total of $5,000 for legal fees on these two questions.

The breakdown of cost estimate from BB&K is as follows:

QUESTION 1

- Scope of Work: We'll need to review all relevant documents that describe the benefit, including the SEIU MOU and personnel file documents that describe the benefits offered to the retiree. We'll apply existing law as it pertains to the vesting of retiree health benefits and assess what the NBCLS obligation is. We will then prepare a memorandum setting forth our conclusions and recommendations.
- Cost Estimate: $3,000 - $3,500

QUESTION 2

- Scope of Work: The legal analysis on this issue has already been done through the earlier work that we did for NorthNet. While I would need to review all available documents, this should not require much time. In fact, unless the documents provide unexpected information, I expect that this question can be addressed fairly easily (I do have a preliminary answer already)
- Cost Estimate: $1,200-$1,500

Ms. Safie will provide an analysis and recommendation for next NBCLS Board meeting, scheduled for August 29, 2019.
